

To raise standards in Maths across the school	To improve provision for phonics and early reading	To embed positive learning behaviours across the school	To be key part of Wootton-by-Woodstock community
Develop arithmetic skills through explicit teaching and practise  For our youngest children using Maths in our wider curriculum teaching and applying to everyday life  Using targeted intervention to close the gaps for groups of children  To build on sequences of learning to ensure there is good progression across year groups	Teaching sequences for phonics are made clear with end of term and year expectations shared with parents  Developing provision for early reading and phonetically decodable books Audit current book stock  Build a culture of reading across the school To build on sequences of learning to ensure there is good progression across year groups in the teaching of reading 	To embed positive learning behaviours across the school  Re-visit high expectations for behaviour review policy and practise. Develop positive attitudes to learning and each other review our core values and ethos as a school  Review our whole school PSHE curriculum ensure we have the right foundations for growing our children	Ensure the school is visible and open to prospective parents and the wider community  Website gives a clear reflection of our values and ethos as school and what we do  Work with the wider community of Wootton through links with groups and raising the profile of the school